

EXPEDITIONER CHECKLIST	√
I have signed required forms e.g. Acceptance of Conditions for Participation in the AAP
I have attended to all my pre-departure considerations (e.g. power of attorney, will, banking, voting etc.)
I have logged my details into the AAO on the web
I have arranged my kitting and organised my personal baggage
I have a current passport and any necessary visas
I am fully conversant with the Antarctic Service Code of Personal Behaviour
I understand some items are prohibited in Antarctica
I have arranged all necessary permits and authorisations and understand their conditions
I understand all my legislative responsibilities (e.g. environmental; work, health & safety; privacy and security legislation)
I am familiar with the AAD drug and alcohol policies
I understand what I need to do with my computing equipment before I depart
I and my family understand the AAD Service Conditions
I realise that attending all pre-departure briefings is compulsory
I understand all the cargo requirements (e.g. baggage allowances, labeling, how to eCon cargo etc.)
I understand that my baggage may be inspected by the Australian Customs Service, the Australian Quarantine Inspection Service and /or the AAD at the time of departure and on return to Australia. Mail and unaccompanied baggage may also be inspected.
I am familiar with all the transport requirements that relate to me
I have read carefully and understand all the information on health and my work health and safety responsibilities
If applicable, I have arranged private health and worker's compensation insurance
I understand what recreational pursuits I may pursue and what is not permitted
I am aware that I will participate in the expeditioner performance assessment
I have familiarised myself with the RTA activities
I have read and understood the Environmental Code for Participants in the AAP
My family and friends know how to contact me while I am away	