Expeditioner Equipment Declaration

Some expeditioners take their own clothing or equipment south with them that may be the same or similar to AAD issued items. To avoid any confusion over ownership on return to Hobart, you should list any items that may fall into this category on this form. You need to have the items sighted by your Station Leader or supervisor who should sign the form to acknowledge they have done this.

Description of item	Make or Brand	Distinguishing Features

I declare that the above items are my personal property and were taken to Antarctica/the subantarctic for my personal use.
