

NILAS

Nilas is a thin elastic crust of floating sea ice, easily bending on waves and swell. It has a matt surface and is up to 10 cm thick.

When under about 5 cm in thickness Nilas is very dark in colour, when more than 5 cm, rather light.

